Subject of the Agreement

The purpose of this document is to define the scope of services and the financial considerations associated with said services provided by one party to the other. Below is a comprehensive overview of the various labels of engagement, reflecting a spectrum of services collectively valued at a sum reflective of both entities' expectations.

Breakdown of Services

Service Description	Quantity	Unit Price	VAT	Total Amount
Graphic Design	5	$150.00	10%	$825.00
UX/UI Design	2	$1200.00	10%	$2640.00
Marketing Consultation	1	$500.00	10%	$550.00
Brand Strategy Development	1	$3000.00	10%	$3300.00

Having carefully considered the aforementioned contributions, when one calculates the aggregate sum, taking into consideration applicable Value Added Tax, the subtotal arrives at an actionable figure of $5745.00. Following the application of certain permissible discounts, the actionable balance articulated is $5545.00.

Payment Terms

It must be noted that the aforementioned balance due, is to be remitted strictly as prescribed within 30 days of the Issue Date, translating the expected due date to the 31st of October, 2023. The following bank details are positioned for processing said remuneration:

- Bank: Chase Bank
- Account No: 123456789

Additional Notes

The Contract ID for future reference shall be designated as CD-2023-10. Furthermore, this engagement recognizes the recurring nature of the services subscribed herein, with an expectation of 12 payments throughout the duration, occurring at an interval frequency of 1 month.

Obligations and Considerations

One must recognize the overarching obligations undertaken by both parties, each intertwining their respective talents and resources to foster a synergistic partnership. Inasmuch as these deliverables are outlined, there lies a concurrent understanding that deviations from the stated agreements may incur additional discussions as deemed necessary.

In the spirit of amicability, this document also embodies various informal niceties which may not directly pertain to the contractual subject. For instance, any promotional inquiries may be directed to Creative Designs Ltd. via:

Final Provisions

To encapsulate, both entities mutually consent to abide by the aforementioned terms, ensuring transparency and accountability throughout the service delivery phases. As such, it remains pivotal to recollect that any future considerations, amendments, or disputes should ideally be resolved through earnest dialogue and not merely through rigid procedural constraints.

In understanding the broader entrepreneurial landscape, where creativity meets technology, both parties must remain vigilant to the evolving circumstances, resembling the variability of urban developments along Innovation Way, with the underlying objective of achieving mutually beneficial outcomes.

Both parties, by executing this document, affirm their intent to uphold the stated commitments and engage in further discourse should the need arise concerning any future developments or contracts.

This contract is calibrated to not only fulfill immediate obligations but also to pave the way for ongoing collaboration, ultimately contributing to both entities achieving their respective aspirational goals.
